ALL BOYS CAMP

All Boys Camp is a four-day adventure for all Royal Rangers and their friends at Camp Wilderness. Camp Wilderness is a modern campground with water available at each campsite and bathrooms and showers in the main lodge. The outdoor setting provides a great environment for big challenges and to commune with God.

The camp activities revolve around a compelling theme. The topic changes each year: knighthood, Olympic athletes, outdoor adventures, water, frontiersman, military, and emergency personnel (fire, police, and medical). The themes are topics that boys enjoy taking part in. Boys have a like to see themselves as heroes destined to face new challenges from an early age.

Overall, the camp focuses on the boys' confidence in confronting new challenges, forming new friends, and creating personal spiritual growth.

The activities involve challenging adventures, such as building and crossing a rope bridge, climbing a wall, eluding a 'wild' bear, gathering supplies under the watchful eye of an adversary, or battling an opponent.

The challenges are designed to be competitive but also achievable for each team member's development. Many activities require a team to com-plete, providing possibilities for teamwork and leadership. The Ranger leaders are present to guide and support the campers, but they solve the challenge(s) by their own strength and teamwork.

The outdoor setting provides opportunity to practice many of the outdoor skills learned throughout the year, such as fire-building, toolcraft skills, and cooking, as well as to get expertise in new skills such as working in a blacksmith shop or shooting guns.

Following a day of adventure, the speaker offers an inspiring message in the evening service, which is promptly followed by a call to action to com-mit to spiritual growth. As the boys return to their Outpost campsite, the quiet time around the campfire provides a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the day's activities, plan future adventures, and develop their growing friendships.

Ranger Kids have age-appropriate competition games for medals and a special Missions banquet on Saturday where they hear a message from a missionary and have the opportunity to earn a special Ranger Kids Badge [LFTL or BGMC]. Ranger Kids are required to have a male adult attend camp with them.

At All Boys Camp, boys will step into an unforgettable weekend of adventure, discovery, and growth as we celebrate 250 years of America's freedom and the greater freedom found in Christ. From the courage of those who helped shape our nation to the men and boys God is raising up today, campers will discover that true freedom is not just something we remember—it is something we live.

Through action-packed activities, powerful messages, and meaningful moments around God's Word, boys will learn that where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. This camp will challenge every boy to stand strong, live free, and follow Jesus with courage.
